

The RSA office is situated in The Melon Ground in the grounds of Hatfield House, which stands in its own park near Hatfield Old Town, Hertfordshire. (NB – do not confuse Hatfield Park with Hatfield Business Park). Hatfield House is about six miles from the M25 motorway and roughly 22 miles north of London. It is just over a mile from Junction 4 of the A1(M) motorway. Hatfield railway station is on the main line from London to Edinburgh and directly across the road from the main entrance to Hatfield House.

Hatfield House is open to the public April-September. Please be aware that during these months you may experience a short delay in entering the grounds.

By Car

There are visitor spaces reserved for you in The Melon Ground.

Satellite Navigation:

If you are using Sat Nav please code in AL9 5AB as this is for Hatfield train station which is directly opposite the entrance to Hatfield House. Due to the size of the park, RSA's postcode does not bring you into the grounds of Hatfield House.

Exit at Junction 4 on the A1(M) motorway. Follow the brown English Heritage signs via A414 and A1 000 to Hatfield Railway Station. Opposite you will see a statue of Lord Salisbury and the big wrought iron gates of Hatfield Park. Please report to the Gate-Keeper and then follow the directions below.

By Train

From London via Finsbury Park, King's Cross or Moorgate mainline stations. Fast trains - allow for 25 minutes; slow trains, 35 minutes. From the north, change at Stevenage from Intercity to fast local service (about 15 minutes). Walk straight across the road from Hatfield Station to the main gates of Hatfield House, report to the Gate-Keeper and then follow the directions below.

By Air

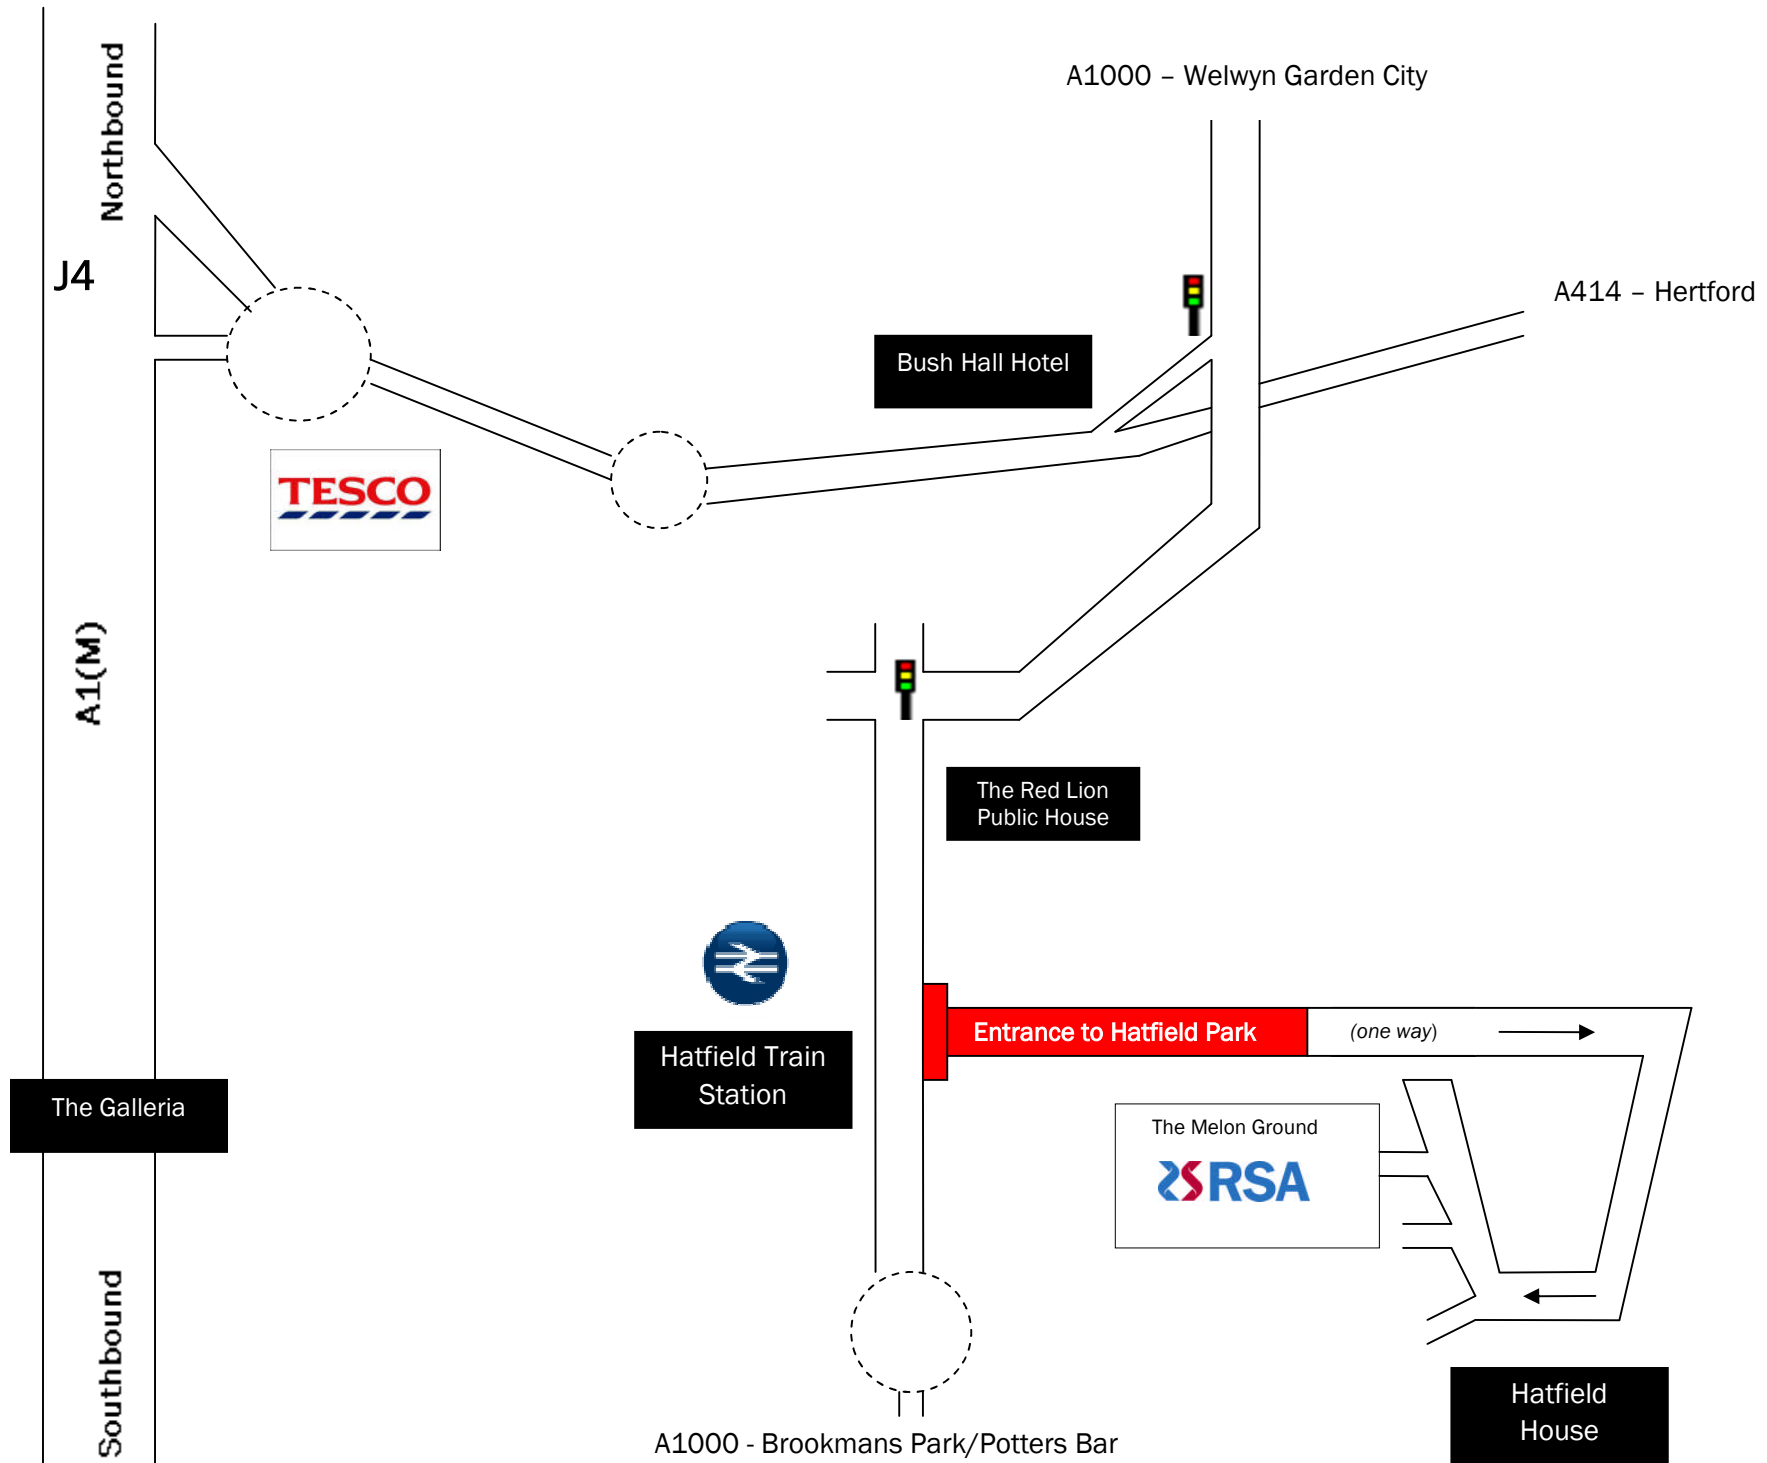

London Gatwick: Train to Victoria, then London Underground (Victoria Line) to King's Cross or Finsbury Park and British Rail to Hatfield. Allow a total of two hours for your journey from Gatwick to Hatfield.

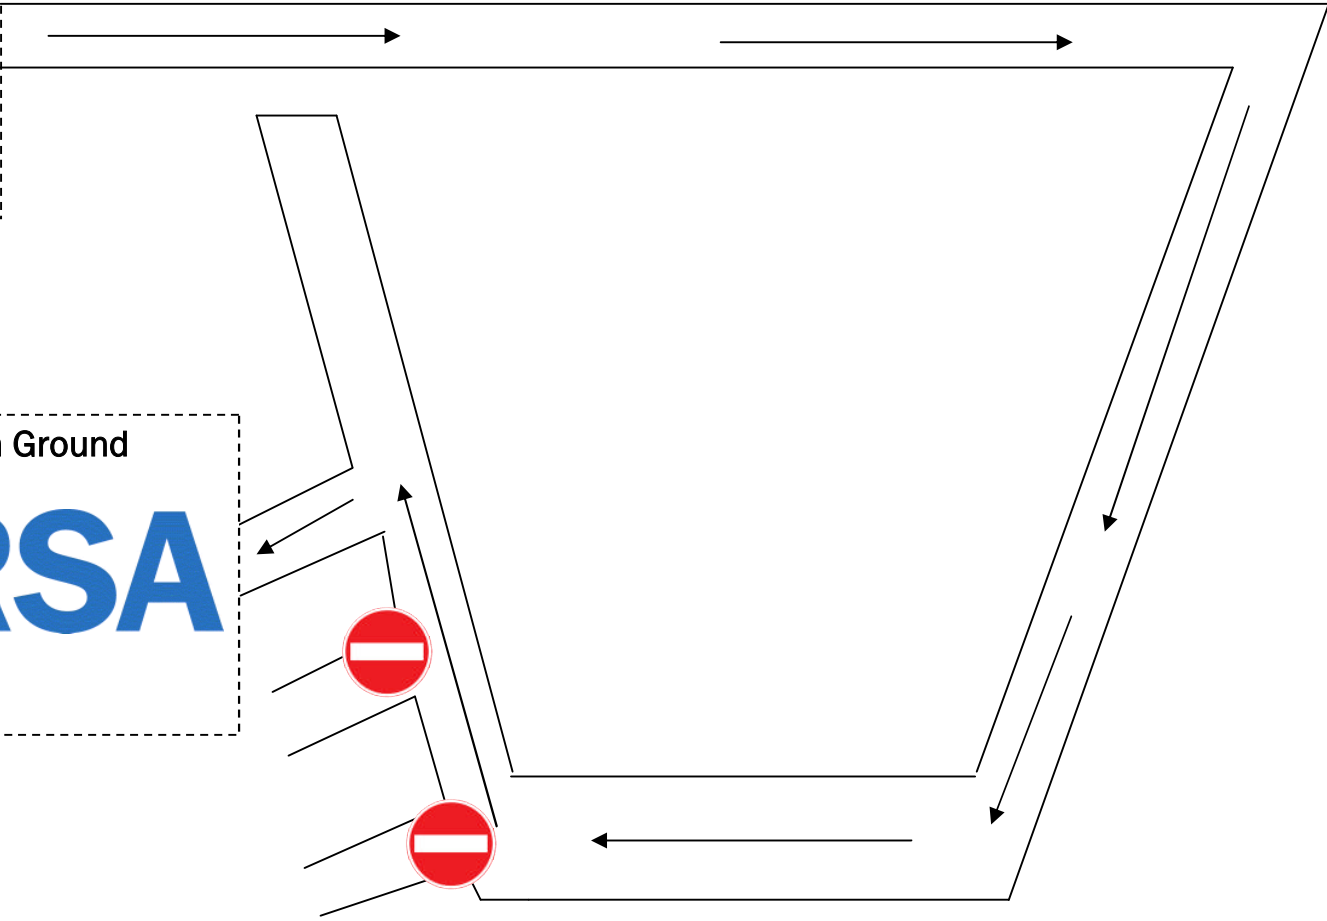

London Heathrow:

Take the Heathrow Express to Paddington, then London Underground (Hammersmith & City or Circle Lines) to King's Cross station and the train to Hatfield. Allow at least 90 minutes for your journey from Heathrow to Hatfield, unless you are travelling in rush hour, in which case allow at least two hours.
